

ALLWEST Testing & Engineering, Inc is seeking a certified special inspector, and entry-level certified soils/asphalt/concrete technicians with 1-2 years of experience for our office in Lewiston, Idaho. Candidates for special inspector, must have current certification in reinforced concrete or be able to achieve certifications from International Code Council within 1 year of employment. Candidates for entry-level soils/asphalt/concrete technician, must be able to achieve certifications from WAQTC and ACI. Good communication (written & verbal) skills with attention to detail is required. Individuals applying will be required to have the ability to work independently, manage their time accordingly and work as a team player. Interested candidates are encouraged to send their resumes to kfunke@allwesttesting.com.